Date of application:

College/School:

Department:

Course name:

Course subject code and number:

Responsible faculty members’ names and email addresses:

Is this course a requirement for an undergraduate major? □ Yes □ No

If yes, which major(s)?

Effective term (when will this course first be taught as an RS course?):

□ Fall □ Spring □ Summer

□ 2012 □ 2013 □ 2014 □ 2015 □ 2016 □ 2017

How frequently will this course be taught, and how many sections are taught at a time?

□ Every semester. Sections
□ Every academic year. Sections
□ Every other academic year. Sections
□ Other (please describe):

Estimated annual student enrollment in all sections of this course:

Required attachments

□ 1. Original syllabus for the course (if it has been taught previously)

□ 2. Statement, not more than one page, that gives the rationale for designating this course as Research & Scholarship intensive.

□ 3. Budget and budget justification

Department Chair signature

Your signature indicates that your program agrees to participate in the assessment of related course materials and to incorporate a Students as Scholars student learning outcome into your department’s Academic Program Review.

Please submit all materials to OSCAR by October 21, 2011.