  o Please continue to remind your colleagues to review our draft and comment on the blog
• Update on presentations to COS Chairs, Faculty Senate, Associate & Assistant Deans, and CEHD Coordinators & Directors
• Upcoming presentations to: WGST Executive Committee (10/19), Student Government’s Government & Academic Affairs Committee (10/19), UL Directors (10/20), CVPA Townhall (10/20), VSITE Faculty (10/22), UL Senior Staff (10/27), and UAP Focus Group (10/29)

General Discussion:
• Lessons learned from W&M seminar
• Revisiting our revised SLO #1
  o Original: Students will understand how knowledge is generated and disseminated through scholarship.
  o Revision A from 10/5 meeting: Students will acquire an understanding of the generation and dissemination of scholarship and its importance to society.
  o Revision B from 10/5 meeting: Students will explore how knowledge is generated and disseminated through scholarship and understand the importance of that process to society.
• Revisiting our revised definitions
  o Original definition of student scholarship: Student scholarship is active (or “the act of”?) participation in research and creative activities that generate knowledge or create new works and the communication of the results to a variety of audiences.
    ▪ We decided to keep this definition as is during our meeting on 10/5
  o Original definition of scholarly inquiry: Scholarly inquiry is the process of generating knowledge or creative works.
  o Revised definition of scholarly inquiry: Scholarly inquiry is the process of articulating a scholarly question, supporting a position, and situating the concepts within a broader context.
