Welcome and Introductions of Committee Members

General Discussion:

- Overview of SACS and the QEP Process
  - Our timeline
  - The goal: importance of imagining the possibilities while also maintaining focus
- Our QEP topic
  - Good work on campus to build on
    - Existing white paper
    - Undergraduate Apprenticeship Program
  - Goals for Inclusion:
    - Interdisciplinary and group projects
    - Research related to global concerns
    - Community-based research & inquiry
    - Performance/creative activity
    - Humanities & social sciences
    - Co-curricular activities/support
    - New Honors College
- Questions:
  - Should our goal for the curricular component be to reach all students?
  - When and how to do outreach to university community (e.g., where we are re: process)?
- Any final thoughts / remaining questions? (index cards)

Handouts:

- Agenda
- QEP Planning Committee Member Contact Information
- QEP PowerPoint
- Provide Book: Reinventing Undergraduate Education: Engaging College Students in Research and Creative Activities
- QEP Handbook from SACS
- QEP White Paper, “Fostering a Culture of Student Scholarship”
- Fall 2009 Meeting Schedule

Next Meetings:

- Tuesday, September 8th from 2:00-4:00 p.m. (Robeson Room)
- Wednesday, September 23rd from 3:00-5:00 p.m. (Robeson Room)

For Next Meeting (September 8th):

- Review QEP Handbook
- Read white paper, “Fostering a Culture of Student Scholarship,” paying particular attention to the preliminary student outcomes:
  - Which are most compelling to you? For your discipline or field of study?
  - What student learning outcomes would you like to add that are not there?
- Start reviewing: Reinventing Undergraduate Education: Engaging College Students in Research and Creative Activities